JULY LINKING RING REPORT

BY MANNY D'MAGO

As Hollywood's Ring 21 summer continues, the club is bringing fire with a whimsically phenomenal lecturer and a July 4th picnic, totally worth its weight in firework power! We hosted none other than the incredibly awesome Rob Zabrecky.

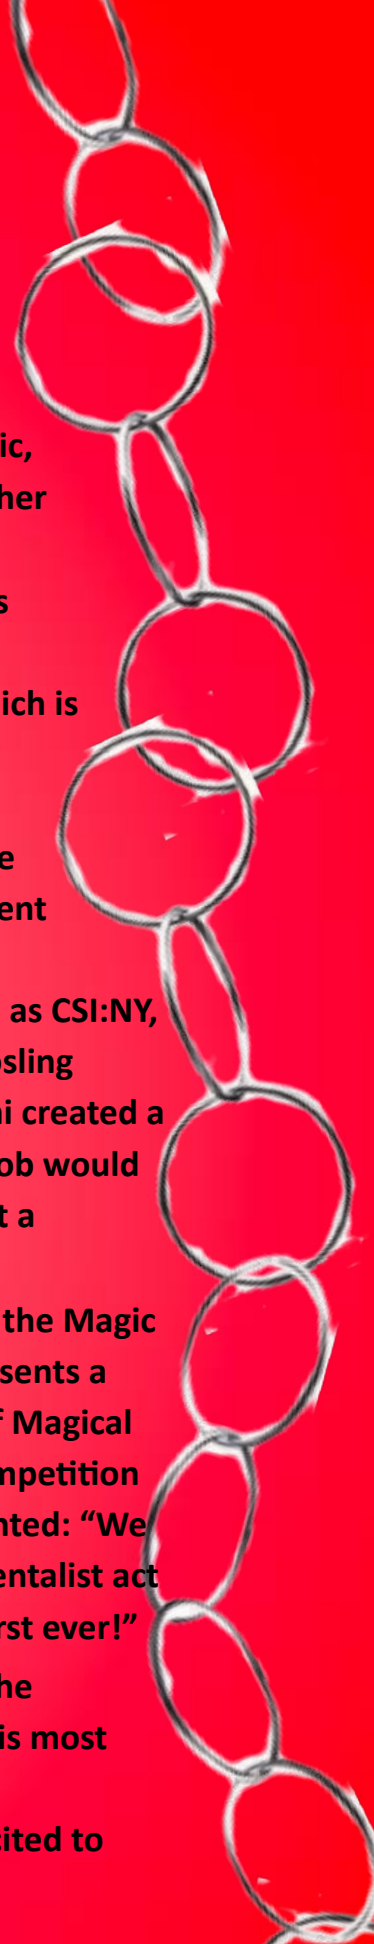

Our meeting started with Our president, Bob Weiss, making his announcements about the club's future endeavors and latest developments, and as well as next month's meeting details which is going to take place a little later in August 2026 due to many members, including myself, attending Magic Live 2026 in Las Vegas. Lots of new members were introduced to the club as the word is getting out that Ring 21 is truly always a red-carpet event whenever we hold meetings.

The man has starred in several popular shows in television such as CSI:NY, GLOW, and also has to his credit a supporting role in a Ryan Gosling movie called "Lost River." In 2019, Zabrecky and his wife Tommi created a comedy series called "The Other Side with Zabrecky", where Rob would invite guests into his home to participate in a séance to contact a departed spirit of their choice.

Since 2010, Rob Zabrecky has performed as a spirit medium at the Magic Castle in Hollywood in the Houdini séance room, where he presents a Victorian inspired séance for both members of the Academy of Magical Arts and their guests. He's also performed for the magician competition show "Fool Us" with Penn & Teller where Penn Jillette commented: "We were trying to think if there's ever been a mentalist doing a mentalist act that was sincerely funny and sincerely good. You may be the first ever!"

Rob Zabrecky has received close to about seven awards from the Academy of Magical Arts, including Close Up Performer which is most recent award.

Besides realizing he's an absolute legend, Ring 21 was truly excited to host one of magics very best performers to lecture.

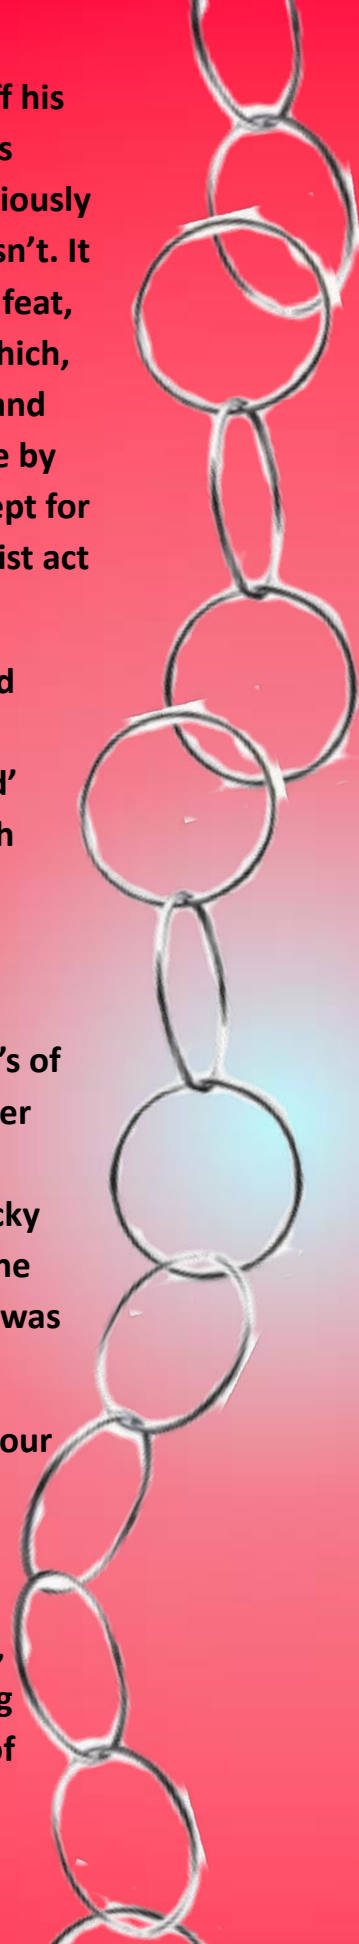

His lecture started with Rob becoming comfortable by taking off his shoes and tossing them somewhere on stage. He then began his performance part with a little cup and one ball. The ball mysteriously kept disappearing and reappearing in where one thought it wasn't. It was an utter masterclass of performance an After that amazing feat, he blessed us by performing and teaching us his 'Fool Us' act which, if you haven't seen already, is a masterpiece of entertainment and mentalism. He had 4 spectators draw random drawings and one by one revealed which drawing belonged to which spectator...except for the last which Rob actually duplicated and solidified his mentalist act with supreme theatrical authority.

He then moved on to one of his great magic trick releases Called "Another World" which uses portraits of Harry Houdini and his Wife Bess. It is a take on the classic card trick 'Out of This World' and was something truly amazing to him perform it for us which also doubled as a demo. I was extra excited because I (Manny D'Mago) was chomping at the bit to be 1st to acquire the parlor version of this trick. Truly fantastical!

The evening's lecture concluded with Rob presenting his A, B, Z's of magic, emphasizing his skills on helping magicians become better performers through character development and presentation. Given his experience in television, music and magic, Rob Zabrecky was the best suited to give his insight into the world of acting the part. He went through almost all his essay and the information was priceless!

This was a lecture to remember to say the least. Stay tuned for our next meeting in August, which will be another one for the history books in Hollywood, which will be delayed until late August because of 'Magic Live 2026' in Las Vegas. August's meeting will have our 3rd annual Ring 21's 'Fool Us' with myself, Manny D'Mago & Gerry Schiller as hosts; also, we will be having a vote for a change of the guard for our club's board. d sleight of hand.

Truly epic!

Things will certainly be very interesting, considering lots of members attended the convention in Vegas last year and will have lots to report. Until next month, this is Manny D'Mago reporting live from the magic entertainment capital of the world, Ring 21, signing off!

2026 marks the 100th anniversary of Houdini's death

The Final Houdini Séance, took place on the roof of the Knickerbocker Hotel (still standing at 1714 Ivar Ave.) in Hollywood on Halloween night, October 31, 1936.

Before his death on Halloween in 1926, Harry Houdini and his wife, Bess, made a pact that whoever died first would attempt to contact the survivor from the "great beyond" using a specific secret code. They agreed that if no contact was made within 10 years, the effort would be abandoned.

To the left foreground, you can see a low table holding a shrine of items intended for Houdini's spirit to manipulate if he broke through—including a trumpet, a tambourine, and a pair of locked handcuffs resting on a pillow.

While there was a crowd of roughly 300 spectators, journalists, and photographers gathered in bleachers, the focal point of the photograph is the "Inner Circle" seated directly at or around the main table.

Beatrice "Bess" Houdini: Harry Houdini's widow, seated in one of the large, high-backed ornate chairs.

Dr. Edward Saint: Bess's business manager, companion, and the director/medium who theatrically conducted the séance. He sat in the matching high-backed chair next to her.

To serve as a "jury" of highly reputable witnesses to any potential supernatural activity, a specific panel of prominent figures sat directly with Bess and Dr. Saint known as The Inner Circle:

Caryl S. Fleming: seated on the far left side of the photograph President and founder of the Pacific Coast Association of Magicians, RING 21, Los Angeles Magicos and dozens more magic clubs.

Judge Charles W. Fricke: a charter member of our RING who was a prominent California Superior Court Judge and President of the California Assembly of the Society of American Magicians (S.A.M.).

William Larsen Sr.: Notable magician, lawyer, and the Editor/Publisher of Genii magazine.

Geri Larsen (Jaffe): Magician and wife of William Larsen Sr., who also witnessed the event firsthand. And of course their sons created The Magic Castle.

Jacob Hyman: Houdini's very first performing partner and boyhood friend from their early "Brothers Houdini" days.

Floyd G. Thayer: The famous magic builder and founder of Thayer Magic Studios.

Earl Rybolt: President of the Los Magicos magic club.

Gerald Kosky: National Vice President of S.A.M. & a past RING 21 president.

Reverend Dr. Acorn: President of the local association of Spiritualist Churches, brought in as an expert on mediumship.

Another charter member & a past RING 21 president there though not pictured was Arnold Furst who was closely acquainted with Bess Houdini and Dr. Edward Saint. He famously recounted asking them afterward what they honestly would have done if Houdini's spirit had actually broken through that night, noting that Ed and Bess laughed, and Ed joked, "Bess would have dirtied her pants if that had happened!"

After an intense session under the night sky, the inner circle waited in vain. No signs occurred, prompting Bess to famously declare her final sign-off: "I do not believe that Houdini can come back to me or to anyone... The lights are out. Goodnight, Harry."

2026 marks the 100th anniversary of Houdini's death

The world-famous Houdini Séance Room at the Magic Castle in Hollywood is one of the club's most legendary, exclusive, and historic spaces. Formally known as the Houdini Séance Chamber, it bridges the gap between classic Victorian spiritualism, Hollywood history, and the preserved legacy of the world's greatest escapologist.

Long before the Magic Castle opened its doors in January 1963, the building was a 1909 Victorian Edwardian estate known as the Lane Mansion. When brothers Milt and Bill Larsen leased the property to create a clubhouse for the Academy of Magical Arts, they saved architectural treasures from all over a rapidly changing Los Angeles to fill the space.

The Séance Room itself was originally one of four upstairs bedrooms in the mansion. It was officially converted into the Séance Chamber in February 1969 by Milt Larsen, John Shrum, and Dr. Tom Heric. The space was meticulously designed in an opulent, dark, High Victorian style to evoke the atmosphere of a 1920s parlor.

What makes the room truly hallowed ground for magicians and historians is the incredible collection of authentic Houdini memorabilia lining the walls and filling the display cases. Many of these items were passed directly from Houdini's widow, Bess, and her manager, Edward Saint, to the Larsen family, who kept them safe for decades. The room houses rare photographs, theatrical posters, historical magic books, and actual restraints used by Houdini—including a set of handcuffs rumored to be the only ones he was ever unable to open.

Over the years, the room has hosted legendary items like his original Metamorphosis trunk and a milk can used in the 1953 Houdini biographical film. Hanging directly over the heavy, round wooden séance table is a stunning, authenticated signed Lalique bronze chandelier. One of the most special pieces inside is a rare, private family photograph of an 8-year-old Milt Larsen on a porch in Pasadena, proudly showing a magic trick to a smiling, attentive Bess Houdini.

Today, the Magic Castle operates the room as an incredibly popular, premium private dining and theatrical experience. It is designed for intimate groups of 10 to 12 people. After dinner, the lights are dimmed, and a master medium (celebrated performers like Rob Zabrecky and Misty Lee have famously held the mantle) joins the table to weave the historical tale of Harry and Bess's pact to cross the veil using their secret code word, "Believe."

Guests hold hands around the table, forming a traditional "magic circle" in complete darkness. The experience is legendary for its eerie, physical theatrical effects—cool breezes, subtle phantom touches, playful taps, and objects moving on their own.

Because the Séance Room requires a specialized booking, it has drawn high-profile dignitaries and celebrities for decades, everyone from Hollywood elite to President Ronald Reagan (who visited the room in 1991) has sat at that very table.

It remains the crown jewel of the Academy of Magical Arts, beautifully preserving the solemn history of magic while proving that, inside the Castle walls, the spirit of showmanship never dies.

HAI HA! HERE'S A BARGAIN!

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps and receive in return a large book explaining how to do Magic Tricks, Second Sight acts, and catalogue of a large number of the latest tricks in Magic, Spiritualism, Illusions, etc., etc. The book is called Magic Made Easy.

It contains many valuable secrets and receipts of how to make various things. Address all orders.

Prof. HARRY HOUDINI,
"School of Magic," 57 E. 115th St.
New York City.

This is an actual ad by Houdini from 1898, 128 years ago. Houdini actually sold quite a bit of magic books, articles, pamphlets and lots of advertisements. He had a ton of advertising pieces and kept every single one he ever made. For instance "Secrets of my Handcuff Tricks" dated 1899 and another that was published in The Evening Express right here in Los Angeles, California called "Houdini Says it is Easy if You

Only Know How" written July 8, 1899. Another book from 1906 that he wrote was called "The Right Way to do Wrong" then in The New York World his article from February 4, 1906 called "Houdini Reveal Card Sleights" and of course the book The Unmasking of Robert Houdini in 1908, The Magician a magic magazine from August 20, 1908 a pamphlet 63 pages long called "Life History and Handcuff Secrets of Houdini" and the list goes on. He also wrote for other magazines, including the Wizard Monthly (pictured, colorized) magazine, M.U.M. magazine, which is the magazine of the Society of American Magicians being an editor in 1925 often contributing articles that he wrote. He even wrote for the Ladies Home Journal in June 1918 "How I got Out of My Rope Ties," "The Thrills in the Life of a Magician" in the American magazine dated September 1918, for Vanity Fair magazine "Confessions of a Jail Breaker" in July 1919, plus synopsis for motion, pictures like Modest Magicians, which was an article in Billboard magazine, on December 19, 1921. Did I say the list goes on and on including exposes on paper magic, mediums and magicians as well as psychic phenomena. The Scientific American had offered a $2500 prize if someone could provide a complete exposure of the Boston medium Margery who baffled "noted scientists of Europe and America" with his claims of x-ray vision so yes Houdini wrote "Houdini Exposes the Tricks used by the Boston Medium Marjorie Margery". In January 1926 for the Popular Science Monthly, he had an article "Lessons in Magic", which was followed by the next month "My Rope Escapes", and then in March "Flight and Magic" in Aeronautic Review. He wrote lots of exposes on mediums and psychics.

He also wrote pages and pages documenting variety acts from all over the world most of them being published. Houdini even wrote several obituaries including Martinka and Chung Ling Soo, just to name a couple. He also wrote non-magical articles for newspapers that included puzzles like crossword, comic strip, anagrams, cryptograms, etc.
